Read what our director says:

Interview participant callout!

My name is Choy-Ping Clarke-Ng 吳彩萍 (Ping). I am a mixed-race Hong Kong-Irish theatre maker and designer. I have staged my own work at Dublin Theatre Festival and the Abbey Theatre (Ireland's national theatre). Much of my work centres on identity, belonging and cross-cultural experiences. I am currently writing a new play called WANDER WANDER WILD WILD 遊遊野野. The play is based on a real plan to build a city in Ireland for 50,000 immigrants from Hong Kong.

I am looking to interview people who have recently moved from Hong Kong to Ireland in the past 10 years. The interviews would be:

- informal
- through English
- an hour or so long
- conducted in person or online
- paid
- participants would be credited as Research Interview Participants when the show is staged

The questions would be on things like what was the process of moving like and how are you finding life in Ireland. These interviews will help inform the writing of the play. There also is potential in future to be part of a group research session, which would also be paid. Interviews will be taking place over this summer/autumn. Please get in touch with me at choypingclarkeng@gmail.com if you would be interested in participating. Very much so looking forward to connecting."

As you can see from this newsletter, we have worked very hard to promote Cantonese culture in Ireland and support Cantonese migrants to integrate into Irish society. Since our start in 2022, all the work has been done by volunteers. Even though we have a small amount of public funds, our regular expenses rely on your support. If you want to see our work continue to contribute to Ireland, please help us so that we can continue this important work.

大家都睇到，我哋不斷努力致力於愛爾蘭推動粵語語言及文化，亦希望幫助粵語移民融入愛爾蘭生活。本會成立以嚟，單靠義工及各善長人翁出錢出力，雖然我哋開始有政府及其他機構嘅贊助，但我哋嘅年度開支，都仍然須靠大眾嘅捐款支持。如果你想見到我哋繼續係本地付出，請各位多多支持，等大家可以繼續一齊走落去。
